

Encyclopaedia Britannica Online Citation Format:

(click on "Cite" in upper right-hand corner of article for information)

One Contributor: last name, first name middle name or initial.

Two Contributors: last name, first name middle name and first name middle name last name.

Three or more Contributors: last name, first name middle name or initial, et al.

Article name: "In Quotation Marks."

Website name: Encyclopaedia Britannica.

URL: <www.britannica.com/place/...name of country...>.

Access date: today's date with month, day, and year.

Example:

Heckel, Heather D., et al. "Venezuela." Encyclopaedia Britannica.

<www.britannica.com/place/venezuela>. February 11, 2019.

Citation Format Worksheet:

Contributor(s): _____.

Article name: "_____."

Website name: Encyclopaedia Britannica.

URL: <www.britannica.com/place/_____>.

Access date: _____.

The World Factbook Citation Format:

"Name of country." The World Factbook. Washington DC: Central Intelligence Agency. Today's date.

CultureGrams and World Book Online:

Choose MLA or MLA8 version of citation and copy and paste onto your Works Cited page.

Video Citation Format (not on a website):

Author/Director. "Title of Video." Publisher, Copyright Date.

Citation Format for a website:

Author of Article or Webpage. "Title of Article or Webpage." Title of Complete Work or Website. Date of Visit. <full http address enclosed in angle brackets>.